RE: PUNKIN PATCH WINNERS

Congratulations to Mr. G.K.M., KRAB's Most Cultured Listener! Mr. G.K.M. won that title by scoring 34 out of a possible 36 points on the October 6th edition of Punkin Patch: Name That Classic. (He even correctly identified Paul Stanbery's 2 improvisations, but we didn't hold that against him.) Mr. G.K.M. edged out several other contestants, including Mike Braun, Pat Ruffio, Muggins McKenzie, Belle Moore, Mary Bender, and Ms. Anonymous. Well done, we say!

THANKS TO:

-- Blue Anchor Coffee for their donation of coffee and tea to the KRAB marathon "And Ain't I A Woman."
-- Norman Courtney who saved the day and helped build the record library.

Sending scents by air waves seems no more impossible now than present radio seemed to crystal set users

STATION NEEDS

- 1) Sheetrock -- Call Keith at 325-5110 for specifics.
- 2) Curtains -- to help improve the acoustics of the studios. Used curtains are fine. Call 325-5110, ask for a staff member.

Donations made to KRAB are tax deductible.

KRAB BIZ

MONEY UPDATE

Special thanks to everyone who pledged during our fundraising weekend "And Ain't I A Woman," October 3-5. The weekend raised $6,800 for KRAB -- not great, but better than we've done on our last couple of fundraisers. It's not great because the amount our fundraisers are making are not keeping up with inflation. Our remote phone lines to Cougar Mountain (our transmitter site), for example, are going up 1000% in the next 18 months. The power to operate our transmitter has gone from around $180 a month a year ago to $300 a month today. And so on and so forth. The point is, our fundraising appeals on the air are no joke. KRAB needs your on-going contributions. If you pledged during the fundraiser, please honor that pledge and send it in as soon as possible. If you did not pledge, please consider becoming a member of KRAB. You will find a membership form for your use printed elsewhere in this Guide.

BOARD MEETING

The next meeting of the Jack Straw Memorial Foundation (the KRAB Board of Trustees) will be held on Tuesday, November 11th at 7:30 pm, here at KRAB. The address is 2212 S. Jackson (come around back through the parking lot for entrance) and the public is invited to attend.

RATING SHEETS

A reminder to mail in the rating sheets from the centerfold of the October Program Guide. You can expect to see a number of programming changes in the schedule around the first of the year, and we would like to use your input via the rating sheets in helping us make decisions about those changes.

BANKAMERIKRABS

Listeners who have become members recently have no doubt noticed that you have not received your Bankamerikrabs. Please bear with us. We are in the process of evaluating and re-vamping the Bankamerikrab program, so we have tentatively put it on hold. If you have comments or ideas on how the program can be improved, call the station and speak with someone on the staff.
